

Is your school struggling to deliver effective Computing lessons?

Education Welfare Advisory and Support Services

Contact details:

01992760220

paige.jago@ewass.co.uk

About our Computing Lead

Paige Jago

Degree in Primary Education with Computing and PE Specialism, experience teaching in the primary sector, including subject leader for Computing. Now an education consultant specialising in online safety and up to date curriculum guidance.

What we offer

- Assistance and support with delivering outstanding computing education
- Training staff on effectively teaching computing and developing children's understanding
- Assistance with implementing inclusive lesson plans
- Advice and guidance on online safety, educational visits and ICT infrastructure
- Workshops with children, focusing on privacy settings and staying safe in an online world
- Auditing both school and staff through the new Government digital framework
- Engaging insets for all staff, including support staff
- Gaining an understanding of cloud-based services conforming with GDPR
- Covid-19 updates for dealing with online safety issues
- Saving schools money annually
- Bespoke packages

Package example*

Year 1

Training teachers in:

Online Safety, eliminating the school fear of technology, how to get the most from technology, the challenges of the internet, teaching computing effectively and understanding the digital world around us- using good practice and TLA support during lessons

1 hour inset every half term (6 days)

Observing year groups at the start of term and at the end of term to ensure teaching is outstanding (2 full days)

Lesson plans for the year including:

Digital Literacy, Information Technology and Computer Science

Digital Framework audit and assessing computing infrastructure

Parent meeting (morning or evening)

Policies and Agreements updated and reviewed

Website audits

Online safety assemblies with parents, staff (including Covid-19 guidance) and children

Assemblies and Workshops for children revolving around staying safe in an online world

Year 2 & thereafter

Insets for new teachers

Lesson plans- changed based on curriculum updates

Children's assembly

Updating policies and agreements

Audits

Can be personalised to fit school context*

